MHT-CET

ADMISSIONS 2016 - 2018

Founder, Mr. Devendra Shukla, Entrepreneur - Coaching Sector

After Std. X a young student is poised at a very critical juncture in his academic career. The next two years will lay the foundation for his future career. When selecting the coaching institute your child will attend to prepare for his dream career in engineering or medical, we recommend you seriously review what your child's requirement are?

At IIT MINDS, we believe even the most talented students need to push harder to raise the bar. They need the right guidance to help them identify their core strengths and build on those. They also need teachers and mentors who will work closely with them to understand their weakness and help them to rectify.

We achieve this at IITMINDS by maintaining small batches and working intensely with each student. After all, the better we know you, the higher we can help you soar.

Rules

- All PDCs for the installments should be dated 5th of every month, and installment cheques to be submitted to the office at the time of admission.
- Admission forms will not be accepted without PDCs of installments
- All payments must be made in favor of IITMINDS in the form of PDC/Pay Order/Demand drafts.
- In case a PDC cheque bounces, bank charges will apply.
- If a student's PDC cheques bounces more than once, the installment facility will be withdrawn and full remaining fees of the student will have to be paid immediately. The institute reserves the right to stop the student from attending class if the fees is not credited as mentioned herein.

Attendance

- Regular attendance in all lectures and tests is compulsory.
- Students must maintain discipline in the premises at all times.
- Those who misbehave during the lectures will be expelled from class. In cases of repeated misbehavior, the institute can rusticate the student without any refund of fees.

Self-Study

- Preparing for MHT-CET needs 4-5 hours of self-study on a daily basis as soon as you enroll at IITMINDS
- Student will receive a self-study chart and timetable to help him/her plan the day.
- Parents are advised to study the self-study chart and monitor the student's study schedule at home.
- The study plan will be revised as the year progresses and the student needs more time for practice.

Attention to details

At IITMINDS, we put in every effort to ensure the best performance of our students

We are set apart by the various key features that the institute has invested in to provide its students with a better learning and study experience.

Key Facilities

Unique study material: Authentic, Exhaustive, comprehensive yet concise, the study material comes in the form of professionally printed books / booklets compiled by our experienced faculty members.

Regular Tests: The institute conducts regular tests throughout the year and provides prompt feedback. This helps us to constantly track and monitor students' performance. We share the same with parents, both for individual assessment and relative rankings.

Strict Attendance Rules: At IITMINDS, attendance is mandatory for all lectures and

The IITMINDS Method: Excuses not accepted

We have a very simple method of success at IITMINDS.

You set a goal for your MHT-CET score and you pursue your score with a single minded focus during the 2 year preparation period. This means you study on a daily basis to a set schedule and each test that you appear for; you have a target score you must achieve.

During these two years, one thing that we do not accept is 'Excuses'. Those who aspire to rank among the best minds of their generation do not do so by offering excuses.

They get there by overcoming all the hurdles in their path and by never losing sight of their goal. That is the attitude and approach we train our students to take.

The IITMINDS method does not merely train you in Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics and Biology for the MHT-CET. Here we train and build your mental strength and will power to pursue excellence at every step on the way.

“First, decide your target scores at H.S.C. & MHT-CET.

Then, do whatever it takes to achieve those scores. No excuses.

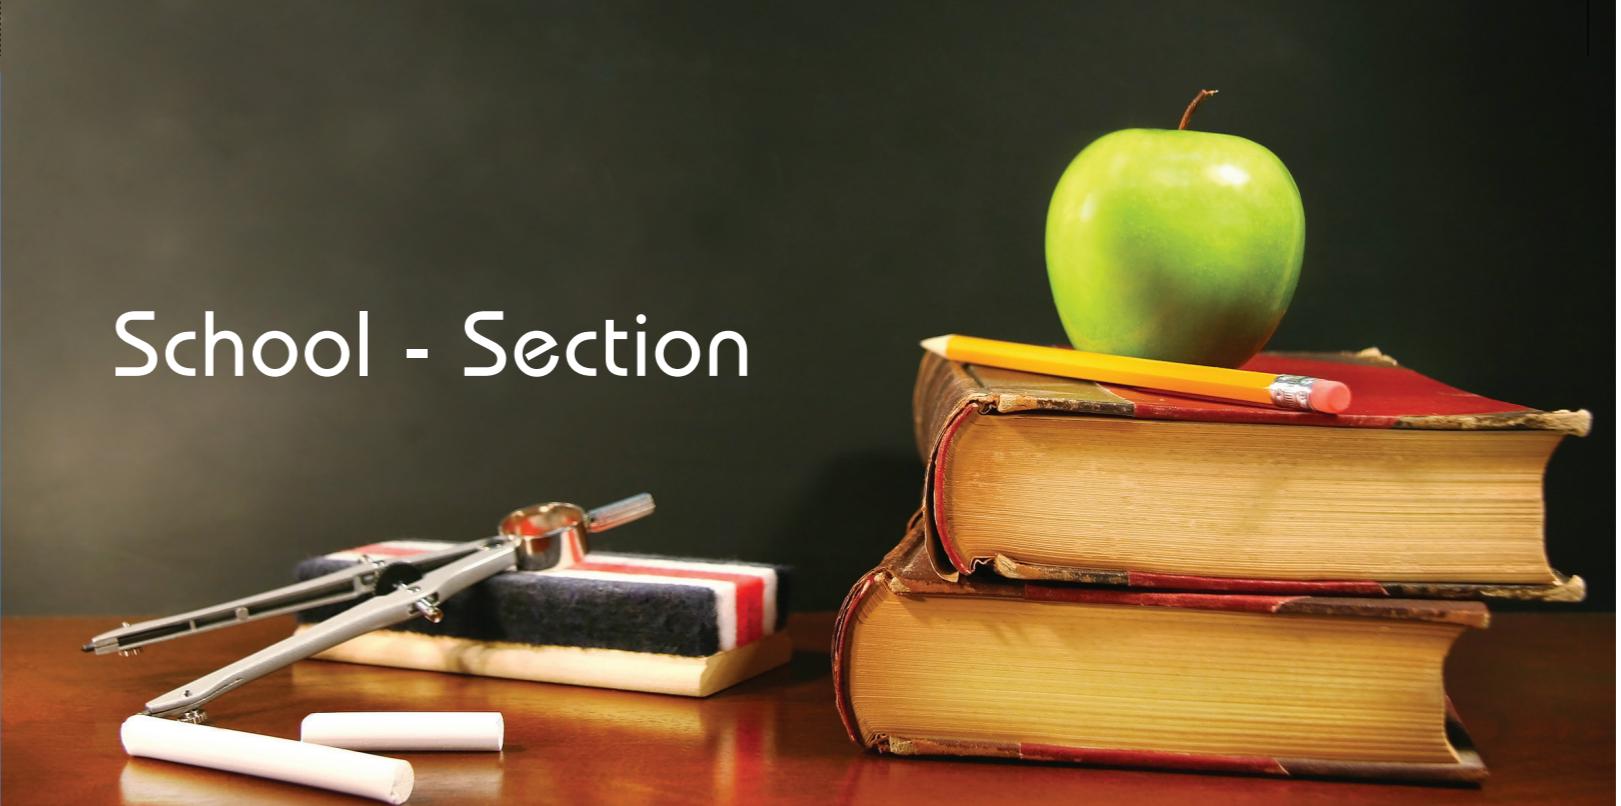

IIT MINDS Coaching + Self Study

Two of the most important aspects of preparing for MHT-CET are coaching and self-study.

A parent should select the coaching institute with care to ensure the student's comfort and rapport with the teachers.

An interactive teacher-student relationship will help your child optimize the time spent at the institute and will prove as an excellent base for self-study.
